The Communists have set up a 130-mm artillery position on a hilltop in government controlled territory in Thua Thien Province about 15 miles southeast of the Hue - Phu Bai airfield but as yet neither the airfield nor the nearby Headquarters of the ARVN 54th Regiment have been shelled. The South Vietnamese are now attempting to recapture the hill.

Communist pressure is continuing against government positions in Military Region 3. There are indications that fighting will sharply increase in western Hau Nghia Province this weekend. The South Vietnamese tentatively plan to launch an operation on
